DAY 5: Siem Reap - Phnom Penh

Flight to Phnom Penh & romantic sunset cruise

After a whirlwind of unforgettable experiences, unwind and savor the tranquility of your hotel until it's time to embark on your next adventure. Our attentive staff will ensure a seamless transfer from your Siem Reap hotel to the airport, ensuring a smooth transition to your onward journey to Phnom Penh. Today the bustling capital city of Phnom Penh awaits you, traveling in comfort by plane of course! The city is in progress of becoming a modern metropolis, yet retaining much of its majestic and romantic old world charm. You will stay in the majestic Raffles Hotel Phnom Penh, where you can step back in time in this beautiful colonial building. Steeped in history, the Raffles Hotel (in its previous incarnation as The Grand) was both a refuge for foreigners escaping the Khmer Rouge when they first occupied Phnom Penh, and subsequently served as a command center for the higher ranked Khmer Rouge cadres. These days, it provides luxury, relaxation and tranquility in the heart of the city. The perfect place for you to continue your romantic journey. Late afternoon you will be given the wonderful opportunity to experience a completely different view of Phnom Penh's beautiful skyline. Embarking on a cruise on the mighty Mekong River, you will get a close view of the traditional villages opposite the modern skyscrapers and watch an unforgettable sunset as you sip on a cocktail.

A Tour through the City

In the morning, a traditional Khmer Cyclo (bicycle powered tuk-tuk) will take you to the Royal Palace, where you can admire the spectacular ancient Khmer architecture. Afterwards you will visit Wat Phnom, where the name Phnom Penh derives from. This pagoda stands on a 35 meter high hill surrounded by trees where monkeys play in the shade. Afterwards you will ride by tuk-tuk to the Genocide Museum of Tuol Sleng, before continuing to Choeung Ek, better known as Killing Fields, where thousands of people were tortured and buried in mass graves. While disturbing, these sites offer you an insight into the country's troubled past, enabling you to understand more about how far the wonderful people of this country have come.

A romantic dinner will be served at the famous Cuts Restaurant, located atop the Rosewood hotel, the highest restaurant in Phnom Penh. It offers magnificent vistas of Phnom Penh and a stunning view of the mighty Mekong River as it meanders through the city. Cuts combines top of the range dishes served in a relaxed, stylish dining room, ensuring your great dinner in Phnom Penh will be one to remember.

DAY 8: Phnom Penh - Kirirom

Wild by name, wild by nature...

You will be taken out of the hustle and bustle of the city to Kirirom National Park, a truly stunning area of Cambodia. Here you will stay in one of the most unique hotels in the world; Shinta Mani Wild. However, before experiencing its wonder, you have to get there! This is done by clipping yourself onto a zipline and literally flying into the complex. A thrilling start to what will be a hotel stay impossible to forget. Shinta Mani Wild is a spectacular combination of world-class design, hospitality and conservation. Developed when world renowned designer Bill Bensley learned about this stunning location and wanted to protect it from development and poaching so developed a stunning luxury camp. It would be hard to find a better combination of luxury in nature anywhere else in the world. The 100 Sq. meter tents, which perch above the river's swiftly moving waters like giant resting birds. 'Tent' doesn't quite cut it: these adventurous, Bill Bensley-designed sleeping quarters have a deck with a river-spying bathtub, an ensuite bathroom and a wild-at-heart bedroom with a king-size bed. Each tent is uniquely decorated with its own colorful Cambodian design scheme and is adorned with antique curios, vintage books and custom-made furniture. This setting will provide the perfect location for you to unwind from your journey. During the afternoon you can relax in luxury listening to the water in the river flowing by, slowly becoming accustomed to the beauty and simplicity of this beautiful area. A delicious, gourmet dinner will be served at the hotel.

Glamping Pure!

After a hearty breakfast, you will have the opportunity to get even closer to the nature that surrounds this magnificent hotel. Shinta Mani Wild works closely with the non-profit Wildlife Alliance, who help preserve Cambodia's nature and wildlife and nature from poaching. The camp funds an on-site ranger station which works hard to protect the local nature and wildlife. You will have the chance to visit this station in the morning, and learn more about the daily challenges the staff face to protect this area. After this fascinating introduction, you will head out with the rangers on one of their daily patrols, looking for traps, snares and signs of poaching. The beauty of the area is absolutely awe inspiring and if you are lucky you may get to see some of the local wildlife. After returning to the hotel after a long, educational and inspiring day, you will have the chance to rest, perhaps enjoy a cocktail or cold beer. At dinner you will have another chance to experience the delicious food prepared by Chef Kian who will use a selection of indigenous herbs and spiced, plucked from the hotel garden. A truly unique, relaxing and special experience.
