Intro

Embark on an unforgettable family adventure in Cambodia!

Crafted with families in mind, this action-packed itinerary seamlessly blends luxury and adventure. Perfect for teens seeking a diverse experience, this journey caters to all interests and age groups.

Imagine yourself trading the city for the serene Cambodian countryside. Picture soaring through the ancient Angkor forests on a thrilling zip line, or mastering the art of Khun Khmer, a traditional Khmer martial art. For the more adventurous souls, rock climbing in Kampot offers a unique challenge against stunning natural backdrops. And let's not forget the chance to give back to nature by planting baby mangroves along the coast.

After a day filled with excitement, unwind in the lap of luxury. Each carefully selected hotel boasts a sparkling pool, inviting you to cool off and relax. And at the end of your journey, reward yourselves with a few days on a tropical island paradise. Think pristine white-sand beaches, swaying palm trees, and crystal-clear turquoise waters.

But the adventure doesn't stop there. Step back in time and explore the rich history of Cambodia, from ancient temples to bustling markets. Hop aboard a vintage jeep for a thrilling off-road adventure. And get up close and personal with majestic elephants at the Kulen Forest project.

This meticulously planned itinerary offers a perfect balance of adventure and relaxation, making it an unforgettable experience for the whole family. Whether you're seeking thrills or simply looking to connect with nature, this journey has something for everyone.

Morning with the elephants - Kulen Forest Project

In the foothills of Kulen Mountain, lies the Bos Thom Community Forest, 1100 acres of protected forest inhabited by the 14 elephants of Angkor. For 22 years, these elephants have given rides to visitors in the temples of the world heritage site. Today, they roam free in their natural habitat and are living testimony of a changing world. Learn about the elephant morning routine. In the mornings, help the elephants with breakfast and see them get ready for their day before heading into the forest together. Experiencing the elephants' mornings is a great way to gain a better understanding of how to care for them. At noon, retire to base camp and enjoy a traditional meal at the same time as our large residents before bidding them adieu and heading with the vintage jeep back via the countryside to Siem Reap.

DAY 6: Battambang

Riding the bamboo train and Phare

We will start our tour in the morning with a ride on the famous bamboo train. The bamboo train is a 2.5m x 4m raft-like device that is made from bamboo for local villagers to transport their goods. There is only one track used for both directions so if you see someone coming in the other direction the drivers will have to decide which train has the lightest load. The train with the lighter load or fewer passengers has to unload their goods and people and dismantle off the track to let the other train by. We will bring you back to your hotel for relax and or swim in the pool.

In the afternoon we will bring you to another highlight in Battambang. Phare Ponleu Selpak in Battambang offers engaging afternoon workshops that provide a unique cultural experience. You can delve into various artistic disciplines. Learn juggling, acrobatics, or other circus techniques from professional performers. These workshops offer a fantastic opportunity to connect with local culture, develop new skills, and support the Phare Ponleu Selpak's mission of empowering young people through arts education. : You'll have the opportunity to enjoy a spectacular Phare performance in the evening.

DAY 7: Battambang

Half day historical tour by bicycle and boat

Explore the amazing architecture of Battambang and the surrounding countryside by bicycle. This tour also takes you on a wooden fishing boat along the river where you can observe the traditional way of life and the local people catching fish. After riding through the historic town, we will cycle to the countryside at a leisurely pace. We make a short stop at the adventurous wooden bridge and continue our way to a Muslim fishing village. There we board traditional wooden fishing boats and explore Battambang's iconic Sangke River. You can sit back, relax and watch the locals fishing. After the boat ride, we continue our way back to the city, stopping to visit an old wooden house, a statue made of old guns and the White Elephant Temple. It's all about having fun and the experience of wearing a real traditional Cambodian costume. One of the best souvenirs to take home is a photo with your family in a traditional Cambodian costume. A memory for life.

After lunch we drive through small villages and between rice fields in our tuktuk towards Phnom Sompov Mountain. The mountain is about 140 meters high and there are a total of 800 steps to reach the top. We will avoid climbing up the steps and take a motorbike to drive up the first part of the mountain to visit the temples, shrines, and killing caves used during the Khmer Rouge period. We will be able to look over all of Battambang and enjoy the vast and beautiful scenery. We will end our journey before sunset by walking down the mountain steps and visiting the “bat army” – thousands of bats flying out of their caves in the mountain side at dusk.
