DAY 3: Siem Reap

Embrace the Cambodian Countryside on a Vintage Jeep Adventure!

Around 8:30 AM, you'll leave Siem Reap in one of our charming vintage jeeps, ready to explore the captivating rural landscapes. Trade the city bustle for a scenic bike ride along flat, red dirt roads weaving through traditional villages. Stop by a local fish market to witness the vibrant Khmer fish trade and immerse yourself in the everyday life of the community. After a refreshing break, we'll journey to Kampong Khleang, one of Cambodia's most impressive floating villages. During the rainy season, a boat trip will unveil the village's unique charm. In the dry season, we'll navigate the village on foot. Next, get a glimpse into local life with a delicious Khmer lunch shared with welcoming villagers in their traditional stilt home. Afterward, we'll visit a peaceful island pagoda and a fascinating monk school. Prepare to be amazed as we continue to the Vietnamese floating village. Here, houses bob gently on the water, boasting a floating school, hospital, local shops, and even a hair salon! Witness this unique, self-contained community firsthand. On our return journey to Siem Reap (around 5 PM), we'll make one last stop for another heartwarming interaction with the friendly villagers, ensuring you leave with unforgettable memories.

3 unique experiences in 1 day!

This morning, you'll step into the role of artisan as you participate in an exclusive Lotus Crafting Workshop. Under the guidance of skilled instructors, you'll learn the art of transforming lotus fibers into exquisite creations. From delicate bracelets to calming meditation wicks and fragrant incense sticks, you'll discover the endless possibilities of this remarkable flower. After your hands-on workshop, you'll be transported to a mesmerizing lotus field, a sea of tranquility and natural splendor. As you gaze upon the vibrant blooms swaying gently in the breeze, you'll be captivated by the serene ambiance. Glide serenely through the lotus field aboard a traditional boat. Immerse yourself in the tranquility of the moment as you admire the delicate beauty of the lotus flowers from a unique perspective. Let the gentle rhythm of the boat lull you into a state of relaxation, allowing the serenity of your surroundings to wash over you. As you conclude your visit, you'll gain a deeper understanding of Lotus Farm's social mission. Learn how this enterprise empowers local communities and promotes sustainable practices, ensuring that the lotus flower continues to bloom as a symbol of beauty, resilience, and hope. Experience more than a cooking class with Cambodian families, eat with locals in their home and have a lot of fun. Your host will prepare three dishes for you or with you, that's up to you. You can just watch how food in Cambodia is made or learn how to make it yourself. and of course enjoy the meal together with the family. The rest of the afternoon is for leisure. You can do some shopping at the many markets or relax at the beautiful pool of your hotel. We end the day with another very special experience.

As the day winds down, prepare to be captivated by Phare, The Cambodian Circus! This high-octane performance fuses modern circus arts with stunning music, weaving tales that celebrate Cambodian traditions, ethos, and spirit. Prepare to be mesmerized by a vibrant blend of theater, dance, acrobatics, aerial feats, and more. Witness an explosion of virtuosity and raw emotion as the Phare performers captivate you with their strength and artistry.
