Cambodia

Cambodia is a kingdom in Southeast Asia. It is 181,035 square kilometres (69,898 square miles) in area, bordered by Thailand to the northwest, Laos to the northeast, Vietnam to the east, and the Gulf of Thailand to the southwest. Cambodia has a population of over 15 million. The official religion is Theravada Buddhism, practiced by approximately 95 percent of the population. The country's minority groups include Vietnamese, Chinese, Chams, and 30 hill tribes. The capital and largest city is Phnom Penh, the political, economic, and cultural centre of Cambodia. The kingdom is a constitutional monarchy with Norodom Sihamoni, a monarch chosen by the Royal Throne Council, as head of state. The head of government is Hun Sen, who is currently the longest serving non-royal leader in South East Asia and has ruled Cambodia for over 30 years. Cambodia has become a popular destination and the country is developing fast. The city of Siem Reap was about thirteen years ago a small place with dirt roads and one traffic light, nowadays is the most touristic city of the country and the historical heart of Cambodia. The temples of Angkor is about seven kilometers of the city center and there are a lot of facilities to entertain the tourists from all over the world. But Cambodia is not only Angkor Wat. This fascinating, friendly country has so much more to offer. Countryside tours, floating villages, white sand beaches, tropical islands, jungle trekking, the mighty Mekong river, bicycle tours, cooking class, waterfalls, hilltribes, and much more.

Waterblessing by a monk and Phare the circus

This morning, you will view Angkor from a totally different perspective. You will fly by private helicopter along the moat of the magnificent Angkor Wat temple and appreciate the extent and beauty of this archaeological wonder from the air. The flight also takes in spectacular views of Phnom Bok, the Rolous group and the unique floating village on the shores of the Tonle Sap Lake. Another new experience for you will be the water blessing which is traditional Cambodian practice dating back to ancient times. Receive a water blessing at the Wat Bo Banteay Chey Pagoda, an ancient pagoda in the countryside, just south of Siem Reap. Blessed water will be poured over your head as the monks chant harmoniously to wish you good luck, safe travels, and a long life. You will then change into dry clothes and sit with the monk experiencing a light sprinkling of water. At the end of the blessing, you will receive red ties around your wrist to signify the blessing performed. Bring an extra set of dry clothes to change into after the water blessing. Clothes must cover shoulders and knees. In the evening, you will be captivated by Phare, the Cambodian circus that mixes theatre, music, dance, acrobatics, juggling, aerial acts, fire and contortion with an explosion of virtuosity and sensitivity in their performances. Witness their incredibly unique way of telling Cambodian tales using modern circus arts and high energy music, touching on themes strong in Cambodian traditions, ethos and spirit. During the hour-long show, the Phare performers share their emotions and excitement, blowing the audience away with their integrity and power.
